  - included the completed transcript evaluation form
  - double-checked accuracy and legibility of reference contact information.
- I have ordered all college transcripts to be sent

Application for Admission

Notice to Applicant: We are pleased at your interest in attending our laboratory preceptorship program in medical laboratory science. For this application, please read all instructions carefully and complete all sections in their entirety as directed. Failure to complete the form fully may result in its refusal or in delays if it is returned for completion. It is highly recommended you have someone proofread your application for accuracy and legibility. In our efforts to efficiently process your application please make sure all required materials are received in a timely manner. International students must refer to our website for information on additional application requirements.

Technical Prerequisites: Carefully read and sign. A student must have the following abilities to accomplish the essential requirements of the program. Should you be unable to meet any requirements, contact the Program Director to verify program eligibility.

Technical Prerequisites:

1. Effective oral, written and social communication skills in Standard English language – Student must:

- a. be able to read and comprehend technical, instructional, professional and informational materials.
- b. follow written and verbal instructions.
- c. have social and communication skills to effectively and concisely interact with patients, physicians, health care providers, hospital personnel and coworkers in both direct and indirect verbal contact and in written format.

2. Physical and behavioral skills – Student must:

- a. be able to sit, stand or walk for moderate periods of time, lift and carry moderately heavy objects, and reach bench tops, shelves and patients in hospital beds or collection chairs.
- b. have manual dexterity necessary to perform the fine manipulations required to safely and accurately perform and report laboratory tests.
- c. be able to distinguish color, clarity, odor and special characteristics of clinical specimens. Have visual acuity necessary to use a microscope and distinguish colors and discriminate fine cellular details. Be able to read graphs, fine print and video displays to adequately perform laboratory tests.
- d. be aware of and recognize potential hazards and adhere to the rules and guidelines for laboratory and hospital safety.
- e. be able to effectively tolerate the stresses of the hospital/laboratory environment, responding professionally to everyday workplace stresses, including emergency situations, noise, smells and encounters with incorrigible individuals. Work well with others and share knowledge and problem-solving skills in a positive manner.
- f. be ethical, honest, and compassionate. Follow hospital rules for patient confidentiality. Willingly take responsibility for one's actions and be forthcoming about errors or areas of inadequacy. Critically evaluate one's own performance and accept constructive criticism as a mode of professional and personal growth.

I attest that I have read and understand the technical prerequisites of the UPMC Chautauqua Medical Laboratory Science Program and am prepared to meet these requirements.

Undergraduates:

Required Attestation: Please read the following and sign to indicate your commitment; contact the program with any questions prior to signing.

I understand that if I am accepted into the UPMC Chautauqua Medical Laboratory Science Program, I may lose my position in the upcoming program year if I receive any grade less than a "C" (C- or below) and if I fail to maintain the minimum GPA requirements (Overall  $\geq 2.5$ , Biology  $\geq 2.5$ , Chemistry  $\geq 2.3$ ) the year preceding the start of the program year.

I have verified the necessary coursework and graduation requirements for my degree at my college/university and I will receive my baccalaureate degree upon successful completion of the clinical program year.
